Notes: Yes - at the time we had eligible courses being taught at the campus (although I understand we did not have any eligible/funded students). This was a small satellite site/campus that was part of our main institution, it was not a partner nor was it independent of the main De Montfort University Campus. All teaching was relocated back onto our main campus (1.5 miles away), as building space became available. The Charles Frears Campus was occupied by our Department of Nursing and Midwifery. Please note: we did not apply for our Nursing and Midwifery programmes to be approved under the new foreign nursing eligibility requirements/regulations that came in in July 2012.
